AT THE COURT HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Governor Jennings, Messrs. Stockton, Broward and Brown Make Addresses.

The above named gentlemen reached Ocala Wednesday morning from Crystal River and wired to have carriages meet them at the Y and went from there to Fairfield, a distance of twenty miles, and on reaching that place learned that the speaking was at Citra, many miles away, so they returned to Ocala via the A. C. L.

During the afternoon quite a number of the prominent citizens called on them at the Ocala House and last night the distinguished guests attended the revival services at the Baptist church in a body.

At the close of the services the congregation was invited to attend the speaking at the court house and a large number accepted the invitation, among whom was quite a delegation of ladies.

The Metropolitan band played several pieces which added zest to the occasion. Hon Raymond B. Bullock presided and introduced the speakers in a most felicitous and happy manner.

At 9:20 o'clock he introduced Mr. John N. C. Stockton, who made his tirade against the Times-Union and many of the other newspapers of the state, the Ocala Banner included.

He attempted to explain why he sold the Times Union to Mr. Flagler but his explanation will not bear close scrutiny.

It seems that he borrowed money from Mr. Flagler to the amount of many thousand dollars and for the payment of which turned him over property that he admitted was sinking money at the rate of a thousand dollars a month and thinks by so doing he paid off an honest obligation.

When Mr. Stockton owned the paper, Mr. Frank Hawthorne, a republican, was its editor.

As soon as Mr. Flagler got possession of it, he put Mr. Wilson in its editorial chair, and it has been run as a democratic paper ever since, and is a paper that is a credit to the whole state.

Mr. Stockton also said that money was being sent into all portions of the state to corrupt its voters and says that the legislature was corrupt that elected Mr. Taliaferro.

He believes in a word that the legislatures of Florida, its newspapers and its voters, are all subject to barter and sale.

He, although nearly always in seclusion for an office, is immaculate and solitary and alone is fighting the people's battles.

He repeated his charge that since his election to the senate Senator Taliaferro's record has been a blank and held up a little sheet of paper to prove it.

After the conclusion of Mr. Stockton's remarks Hon. C. M. Brown entertained the audience in a twenty minutes speech which was well received.

He took up some of Mr. Davis' anecdotes and turned them against that gentleman.

Governor Jennings and Mr. Broward next took possession of the platform and spoke along the same lines as in their former speeches in this city.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There is nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, ulcers skin eruptions and piles. It is only 25c. and guaranteed to give satisfaction by Tydings & Co. druggists. m

THE TACKY PARTY.

Ludicrously Delightful Affair Given by Miss Miller Tuesday Night.

The old time "tacky" party at which Miss Mona Hiller entertained for Miss Helen Blair, Tuesday night, was decidedly the most ludicrous and fun provoking party given in Ocala in many years.

The costumes were all rich and appropriate and the shouts of laughter heard as each new guest arrived were indicative of the good time every body was having. It would take the brush of an artist or the pen of a poet to describe the wonders of the many varied costumes, but suffice it to say that the gowns and bonnets worn by the ladies and the suits and hats of the gentlemen would put to blush the fashionable modistes, milliners and haberdashers.

Dancing was the special feature of this affair and it was entered into with great zest and enjoyment.

While the couples were enjoying the dances, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hiller, Mrs. Edward Holder, Mr. and Mrs. William Hocker, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. H. A. Ford, Miss Stotesbury, Miss Louise Gamsby, Mrs. R. L. Anderson and Mrs. W. L. Hale studied the costumes minutely to determine the prize winners.

It was decided that Miss Mary Little and Mr. W. F. Wheeler were the winners of the first prizes, while Miss Violet Harris as "Sis Hopkins," and Mr. M. J. Roess were awarded the second prizes. The souvenirs were delivered by Mr. Hiller in a brief speech after which several flash light pictures of the entire striking and picturesque group were taken.

Punch and other refreshments were served during the evening and later on there was a guessing contest. Each question had to be answered with words forming the monogram of the guesser's name. This proved to be quite interesting.

The dancing was continued until nearly one o'clock, the guests then leaving each declaring that they had the "greatest" time of their lives.

Miss Hiller's guests were the following: Misses Helen Blair, Emily Ford, Mary Little, Violet Harris, Georgia Smith, Valeta Potter, Eulalee and Eloyse Izlar, Johnnie Liddon, Esther Weathers, Louella Gary, Hattie Dye and Sara Harris; Messrs. W. T. Wheeler, H. C. Dozier, W. D. Taylor, Stephen Jewett, H. A. Daniel, E. J. Crook, C. L. Andersen, S. E. Hiller, J. H. Mathews, J. H. Workman, E. T. Helvenston, G. H. Ford, J. H. Taylor, M. J. Roess, of Cornell; C. H. Lloyd, of Holder; A. S. Anderson, of Dunnellon; and T. H. Harris.

How to Ward off an Attack of Rheumatism.

"For years when spring time came on and I went into gardening, I was sure to have an attack of rheumatism and every attack was more severe than the preceding one," says Josie McDonald, of Man, Logan county, West Va. "I tried everything with no relief whatever, until I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application gave me ease and before the first bottle was used I felt like a new person. Now I feel that I am cured, but I always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, and when I feel any symptoms of a return I soon drive it away with one or two applications of this liniment." Miss Stotesbury Entertains.

The Married Ladies Card Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Emily Stotesbury. She was assisted in entertaining her guests by her sister, Mrs. H. A. Ford, and the meeting was in every way a particularly pleasant one.

The first prize, a centerpiece, was won by Mrs. C. L. Gamsby, and the booby prize, a gold stick pin, was awarded to Mrs. F. T. Schrieber.

Miss Stotesbury's guests included the members of the club and Miss Louise Gamsby and Miss Edith Platt.

Mrs. Little Entertains.

Mrs. Henry W. Little was the hostess of the Original Whist Club Wednesday afternoon and she entertained them in a most charming manner. She was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Mary Little.

A quantity of cut flowers were scattered around the rooms and were most attractively arranged. Those who played whist were the following ladies: Mrs. Edward Holder, Mrs. G. T. Maughs, Mrs. C. R. Tydings, Mrs. Edward Hiller, Mrs. W. V. Newsom, Mrs. C. V. Miller, Mrs. A. H. Marsh, Mrs. G. C. Pasteur, Mrs. D. S. Woodrow, Mrs. Charles Rheinauer, Miss Wetmore, Mrs. J. K. Austin, Mrs. D. M. Smith, Misses Esther Weathers, Margaret Eggleton, Ethel Sinclair, Beatrice Sinclair, Georgia Smith, Mary Little and Sara Harris. The scores were marked by Miss Miriam Pasteur and during the games punch was served by little Miss Christine Little.

At the end of the games refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and bonbons were served by Misses Pasteur, Weathers, Little, Emily Ford and Helen Blair. The color scheme of the refreshments was lavender, the cream and candies being of this dainty shade.

The prize, a lovely cake plate, was cut for by Mrs. Maughs and Miss Harris, the last named being fortunate in winning it.

Mrs. Little's guest spent a most delightful afternoon.

A Narrow Escape.

Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock a horse belonging to J. D. McDuffy became frightened and ran away. The terrified animal quickly broke loose from the vehicle to which he was attached and ran down the side walk from the Munroe & Chambliss bank to the postoffice. Several gentlemen standing on the bank corner were afraid to move in either direction not knowing which way the horse would run so all they could do was to hold on to the posts, which they did to a finish. As soon as they recovered their breaths they started in pursuit of the horse. All down the line people could be seen rushing into the stores—everybody giving the animal the right of way. Just at the postoffice corner a nurse with the young son of Mr. T. W. Troxler very narrowly escaped being run over. The horse struck the go-cart but fortunately the nurse with great quickness snatched the child up in her arms just in time to get away from the horse. The cart was knocked over and all the contents turned out on the side walk. The horse was finally stopped without having done any serious damage.

The Largest Family in Marion County.

Mr. Allan Rodgers, while on a trip from Citra to Orange Springs stopped for a while with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hall, who are father and mother of sixteen children, two of whom are dead and fourteen living, eleven girls and three boys.

Mr. Hall will vote for Allan for sheriff, while the rest of the family will help his cause by speaking good words for him.

Thanks

So many of the dear people of the church and city have contributed to us in our distress, that it is impossible to write to each one separately so we use this means of expressing our gratitude to them all. Words are to feeble to tell of the love in our hearts to each one who has so kindly given us material help and the help of sympathetic words. While our loss was great, is a source of pleasure to know that we are loved. "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me," said Christ. It was his love in your hearts, dear friends, that made you feel for us in the hour of our calamity. Our hearts are touched at the exhibition of your kindness and we thank you, one and all, for the timely aid given to us in our time of need. Now, we wish that each one of you may dwell under the sweet smile of the Savior and that God's richest blessing may rest upon the dear people of Ocala.

Yours in the love of Christ,
REV. AND MRS. W. C. LINDSAY.

Ft. McCoy Meeting.

Messrs. John P. Galloway and Allan Rodgers, candidates for sheriff, attended the Fort McCoy meeting and found about thirty present notwithstanding the misunderstanding about its being called off.

Regrets were expressed that more of the candidates were not present. Those present had a good time.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

At the solicitations of our many satisfied friends with our services in the past we have decided to become a candidate for the office of Purveyor in Chief to the family trade of this and adjoining counties and request the support of all democrats and republicans before and after the primaries. Respectfully submitted,
